Welcome To New Orleans Family

Welcome to New Orleans to our dear Graham Family
We're here together, old with new, to "DO" The Big Easy

We reunite to honor all the ones that came before
We gather as a family to strengthen and restore

We'll share our family history and celebrate our past
While savoring the ties that bind, to which we all hold fast

There's such a special closeness that our family members share
A closeness that is filled with love and laughter, joy and care

So here we are with arms held wide to welcome old and new
To get and give that Graham Fam Love the way we always do.

With Love & Appreciation,
The New Orleans Reunion Committee

Grahams doing The Big Easy

How it all Started

Told by Louella “Sis” Graham Rose (& others)

The Graham Family Reunions began with a conversation between Uncle Otto (son of Stephany and Caroline Graham) and a few family members about the importance of knowing one's family. Uncle Otto suggested having a reunion, and the rest is history! Prior to 1987, there were several years the Graham family got together for reunions that started at the home of Lawreather Graham Walker in Dorothy, NJ. Later, they were hosted by her sister, Vernese Graham Smith, at her home in Richland, New Jersey. Their yards were large enough to accommodate local and extended family that traveled from other states, as well as the many volleyball games that took place. The tradition of holding reunions every two years since 1987, continued until the Coronavirus Pandemic of March 2020 which impacted the nation delaying our reunions until 2024.

Below is a list of reunion years and the host states.

Safety Tips

NOLA Safety Message

Just some quick safety tips to ensure you have the best reunion experience:

- Travel in groups
- Don't display expensive items such as high-end purses or jewelry
- Stay in well-trafficked areas, especially at night. Popular zones like the French Quarter, Warehouse District, and Uptown are considered safer, while some neighborhoods farther from tourist centers have higher violent-crime rates
- Stick to well-lit, busy streets when bar-hopping
- Keep your phone charged and location sharing on with someone you trust
- Know your drinking limits. New Orleans pours strong drinks, especially on Bourbon Street. A “single” can feel like a double
- Never leave your drink unattended

Second Line is a traditional celebratory brass band parade in which the first line consist of the main honorees such as a wedding couple and the band; while the second line is comprised of people who follow the band to enjoy the music, dance, and engage in community with parasols & handkerchiefs.

Message from the 2026 New Orleans Reunion Chairperson

Welcome Graham Family,

I am Jamesetta (Jamie) White, the wife of the late Mark H. White Sr. My late husband Mark was the son of the late Robert Embre and Olivet White, the grandson of Hattie Dora Graham White, great grandson of Stephany George Graham and great great grandson of Tisby Graham.

Mark and I hosted the farthest west Graham Family Reunion in the Mile High City of Denver, Colorado from August 31 - September 3, 2001.

Many of the family that attended experienced the Rocky Mountain range that is visible from downtown Denver with an elevation of 5,280 feet above sea level. We had a Saturday bus ride into the mountains where the family visited and ate at the newest gaming casinos in the area that had just opened months before.

Many of the family still remember the outdoor Red Rock Amphitheater where concerts were performed by artists Jimi Hendrix, Earth Wind & Fire, The Beatles, Diana Ross, Lionel Richie and B.B. King to name a few. We then ventured to the Golden, Colorado Alpine Slide where many family members braved the downhill mountain slide in go carts that left them wanting more. It was the thrill and fast-moving of the carts coming down the mountainside that they remember. Ask a family member about that Colorado alpine slide when you see them this year at the reunion. Colorado set the trend for many of the family reunions after 2001.

Mark and I hosted the family to a barbecue picnic at our home in the foothills (entrance to mountains) that Labor Day on September 3rd, 2001. We loved having the family come to Colorado and hoped that we would have another reunion there; however, fate did not allow us to repeat a reunion there.

Grahams doing The Big Easy

Fast forward exactly 25 years later and I have picked up the mantel (with my late husband Mark's guidance from above and his love for his Graham Family) to host the Graham Family Reunion in New Orleans, Louisiana (NOLA) which is the farthest South that we have had a family reunion. We hope that many of the family will attend the reunion.

New Orleans is full of food, culture and easy living which is why it is also known as the "Big Easy". The family will experience the streetcars that you can ride throughout the city. We have the only paddle riverboat tour line that you can ride down the Mississippi River which spans 10 U.S. states with the source beginning in Minnesota and ending at the mouth of the Gulf of Mexico.

We are so excited to host the family and share the culture of the south. I should point out that southern Louisiana is known for its Antebellum Slave Plantation Mansions along the Mississippi River, which many still stand today and are toured by many people from around the world.

My NOLA committee is small, but the help has been big with Denise White as Co-Chair. I have held monthly meetings with GFR area coordinators. New Jersey has been an integral part of the planning with Debra Griffin and Marcella (Pudden) Smith. I must give a big shout out to Curtis Smith, Brea Smith, William (Billy) Smith for the impressive website and registration system (Cheddar Up) and to Tashay Tolbert for formulating our journals with the help of Curtis Smith, Sierra Tolbert and Marcella Smith. I would also like to thank Curtis Smith, our genealogist, for being diligent in keeping up with all family updates.

Jacksonville has been instrumental in coordinating the NOLA T-shirt and the bags with Denise White, Charles (Chuck) Tillman and Stephanie Tillman and I appreciate them doing so. I also want to thank Denise White for designing the Legacy T-shirt. I want to personally thank Christopher Whiten for his very generous donation which helped in securing our first vendor deposit.

I am so excited to have everyone here in NOLA and especially all the descendants of Tisby that are attending for the first time the Graham Family Reunion.

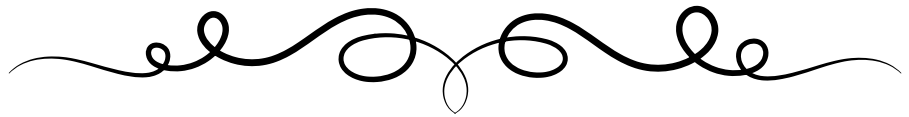

A Special Thanks to The Ones Who Made it Easy

The entire Graham Family wishes to express our deepest gratitude to

Brea Nicole Smith

for developing our very first Graham Family Reunion Website for the New Jersey 2024 Reunion. Because of you, we no longer have to rely on paper registrations. Your creativity and expertise have resulted in an amazing family website that is as impressive as it is informative.

We applaud you!

The Graham Family would like to send a huge thank you to

William “Billy” Smith Jr.

for introducing CheddarUp for the 2024 Reunion as a payment and collection vehicle securing Graham Family Reunion fees. You have saved us so much time and manual record keeping.

Thank you for simplifying the process!

Through
Tisby Graham

Daughter of The Mende People

Kathy

Denise

Debra

5th & 6th Generation Descendants Of Tisby's Daughter
Katie Graham Cameron

We had been trying to trace our Graham Family ancestry back through slavery to Africa for years, but we weren't able to go back any further than Tisby. So we decided to do a matrilineal DNA test. Matrilineal DNA is the DNA that's passed down exclusively from mothers to their children, but only their daughters can pass it on further.

Those of us who descend from Stephany's grandson Robert Embry White also descend from Stephany's sister Katie through her granddaughter Olivet. So we are in fact, Grahams that descend from 2 of Tisby's children, Stephany and Katie. And through Katie, we have a direct, unbroken matrilineal line straight back to Tisby. That line goes from Debra and Denise, to their mother Gladys, to her mother Olivet Williams White, to her mother Frances Cameron Williams, to her mother Katie Graham Cameron, to her mother Tisby Graham. An unbroken line of mothers and daughters that go straight back to Tisby.

From that unbroken matrilineal line, African Ancestry was able to tell us that the original enslaved African female in our ancestral line was taken from the Mende People in Sierra Leone. But the Mende People only migrated to Sierra Leone after the collapse of ancient Mali. So the Mende People of Sierra Leone, from whom we all descend, are in fact descendants of the ancient Mali Empire. That's our Graham Family ancestry.

The Mende people of Sierra Leone are descendants of the ancient Mali Empire. They migrated to Sierra Leone during the 16th and 17th centuries, after the collapse of the Mali Empire.

The Mali Empire (1230–1670) was a major West African Islamic state that encompassed over 400,000 square miles. It was a hugely powerful and massively wealthy empire. And while it was known as a major global source of gold and a major trade center, Mali was also known as an intellectual powerhouse as well.

Under the patronage of preeminent rulers like Sundiata Keita and Mansa Musa, the cities of Timbuktu, Gao and Djenné flourished as global destinations for scholars. It was one of the most prominent centers for theological studies, for science, math, medicine, law, and all other aspects of intellectual pursuits.

But after more than 400 years of being a premier West African power, internal leadership struggles and the rise of the Songhai Empire led to the decline and later disintegration of the Mali Empire.

Following that disintegration, the population which came to be known as the Mende people migrated southwest to the area that is now known as Sierra Leone.

You may have heard of the "Amistad" incident of 1839, where 53 captured Africans were led by one Sengbe Pieh to revolt on a slave ship. You may have seen the movie depiction of that incident and the famous trial where those 53 kidnapped Africans sued the United States government and won their freedom, and in the process they ended up setting a landmark federal precedent against slavery in America.

But what you may not know is that those Africans were Mende people from Sierra Leone, the same place from which our original female ancestor was kidnapped and brought to America as a slave.

So while we may have previously only known of our history of enslavement in America, we can now boast of our ancestral history as members of the Mende People of Sierra Leone and as descendants of the powerful and staggeringly opulent Mali Empire.

That's our family history. And as descendants of Tisby, that's our family legacy.

Everyone who descends from Tisby shares the same ancestral lineage. So if any family member wants their own certificate, or if anyone wants to gift a certificate to a family member, go to africanancestry.com and use the following information:

1. Test ID: 1156516
2. Dated: Feb 9, 2025

4. Name: Be sure to include the name you want printed on the certificate EXACTLY as you want it printed.

The cost for each certificate ordered is $15.

Knowing Our History

Tisby, the One Who Binds Us All

TISBY GRAHAM was born enslaved, most likely between 1832 and 1835. She grew up on the Graham Plantation in South Carolina, cooking in the kitchen. Tisby was very young when she birthed her first child, Stephany George Graham, fathered by the plantation owner, Nelson Myers Graham. Tisby later married Benjamin Graham and birthed four more children, Tishia Graham, Benjamin Graham, Katie Graham and Rebecca Graham. Although Rebecca's descendants are unknown, our circle is more complete as lineages from four of Tisby's children were discovered prior to our 2024 New Jersey Family Reunion, some of which were in attendance for the first time and have continued to grow in number!

We are Rooted in Love and United in Legacy!

Year-Round Festing. Most places have a single festival season but in NOLA, the fun never stops. Winter is dedicated to Mardi Gras parades and more; while mega feasts such as Buka Fest, French Quarter Festival, and the coveted Jazz Fest are reserved for spring. Summer sizzles with events like Essence Fest, Tales of the Cocktail, and food fest which reign well into the fall season with the Oak Street Po-Boy, Mac 'n' Cheese, and Beignet festivals.

When the first whiffs of smoke start to rise from the oil, dump in the flour and immediately start stirring. Do not walk away. Just continue to stir, scraping the bottom and edges well to keep the flour from burning.

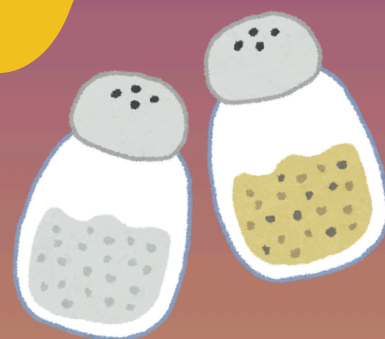

Option: You can substitute meat, with any kind of sausage (chicken or turkey) if you don't eat pork.

Red Bean Mondays. It's well known that Monday is one of the most dreaded days of the week, but in NOLA, they created something to love. This weekly delicacy can be found at just about any restaurant or household throughout Crescent City. Pair it with fried chicken, pork chops, or smoked sausage and look forward to Mondays.

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE AND LOVE

REMEMBERANCE PROGRAM

RESCUERS LOSE LIVES
GRANDPARENTS, TOT DIE IN AREA BLAZE

Fire blamed on heating paraffin that boiled over, claiming the lives of a couple and their small granddaughter here early Friday morning. Three other grandchildren fled to safety through a first-floor window. Dead are George Graham, 61; his wife Irene, 54 and Rita Green, 5. Their charred bodies were found on the living room floor of Graham's two-story, eight-room home of brick and cinder Block on 13th Ave.

Horried neighbors, prevented by a wall of smoke and flames from entering the dwelling, watched helplessly as Graham, clad in pajamas, stopped in a vain effort to pick up Rita and rescue her. He was in a crouching position when the bodies were located.

Lewis Hannah and Samuel White, nephews of the Grahams, broke a window in an unsuccessful bid to reach the trapped trio. White was treated at the hospital for a cut hand.

Second Fire

A former home of the Grahams, built of wood, burned to the ground some 15 years ago. Graham constructed the new home of masonry to reduce fire hazards.

The three bodies were found after firemen from Dorothy, Milmay, Richland and Belcoville battled the blaze for about 2 1/2 hours.

Mr. Graham, wakened by the flames, roused the children who escaped but lost his own life, as he was trapped and overcome by smoke.

Benediction

Det. Robert Saunders of the State Police at Mays Landing, said Mrs. Graham had been heating paraffin on an electric stove, probably for canning use. She may have dozed off while her husband and the children were asleep on the first floor, he said, and the paraffin boiled over and ignited, spreading the flames.

Surviving Mr. and Mrs. Graham, in addition to the grandchildren are four daughters, Mrs. Bessie Green of Pleasantville, mother of Rita, Mrs. Vernese Smith of Richland, Mrs. Lawreather Wood of Dorothy and Mrs. May Burrell of Egg Harbor City; four sons, Thomas of Mays Landing, Garfield of Detroit, Michigan, George Jr., on military service in Japan and Frederick of Milmay, and a granddaughter, Consuela, sister of Rita.

Mrs. Graham is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Williams of Tampa, Fl., and Mr. Graham by a sister, Mrs. Laura Hannah of Dorothy, and four brothers, Otto of Yeadon, Pa., William of Philadelphia, John Graham of Dorothy, and Samuel of New York City.

In addition to her mother and sister, Rita is survived by her father, George, and paternal grandmother, Mrs. Fannie Green, also of Pleasantville.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham, residents of Dorothy for 22 years, were members of Mount Calvary Baptist Church, Mays Landing, where he was a deacon and she was a deaconess and member of the deacon's aide and usher's board.

The Rev. Horace Guyton will officiate at services for Mr. and Mrs. Graham and Rita at the church on Tuesday at 8 pm. Burial will be at Lincoln Memorial Park, Mays Landing.

Thank you for attending the Honoring and Remembrance program tonight. Many Blessings and Happy Easter to you all!

A Legacy of Love and Living Sacrifice

"Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God"...Romans 12:1

With hearts full of gratitude, we would like to honor the beautiful pillars of our legacy who have gone home to be with the Lord. We remember our dear parents and grandparents, who did not just teach us the Word, they put it into action through their walk of faith.

Honoring the Foundations of Our Faith and Family:

- Laura & Lewis Hannah Sr. (Grandma & Grandpa)
- Essie & Lewis Hannah Jr. (Mom & Dad)

Their love was our foundation, their sacrifices our blessing, and their guidance a gift we still carry in our hearts. Through every hard work, every prayer, and sacrifices, they offered their lives to build the very structure we stand on today. They taught us the true meaning of Romans 12: 1 to love sincerely, to be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, and faithful in prayer. Though we miss their voices, their laughter, and their comforting presence at our table, we feel them with us in the traditions they began and the legacy they helped build. Their memories, our strength, and the love we share keep them alive in us.

We hear their spirits echoing the timeless reminder: "Work together children, don't get weary, be nice... God bless you all." We honor them always, keeping their love alive and attempting to continue the structure they built.

With love, grateful hearts, and lasting gratitude,

Our parents leave us with many memories...

They leave us love, hope, the challenge of continuing to participate in the Graham Family reunion, lasting memories of family gatherings as well as a determination to be all we can be. They leave nine living children, Daisy, Dianne, Mary, Darlene, Lewis, Anthony, Albert, Noel, and Joseph. Three deceased children, Waddell Hannah, Sr., Stanley Hannah, Sr., and Roman Hannah. They also leave us with thankful hearts, confidence in one another, a thirst for education, respect for the use of power, faith, and racial dignity.

They leave us with a desire to live harmoniously with family members and fellow men.

We are encouraged to take charge of our young people and to respect our elders.

They leave us sound, Godly wisdom and perseverance to continue to support our family!

Psalm 37 & Proverbs 16:31

To My Dear Graham Family,

Gathering together always reminds me of the incredible foundation we share. My love for this family grows stronger with each passing year, fueled by our shared resilience, laughter, and unbreakable bonds.

As I prepare to welcome my very first grandchild, our family legacy sits closer to my heart than ever before. It brings a renewed purpose to everything we do. We aren't just maintaining traditions—we are actively building the future.

It is more important than ever that we carry forward a legacy rooted in unconditional love, open minds, and progressive thought. We owe it to the next generation to leave behind a family that embraces growth and always looks forward.

Thank you for being my anchor, my joy, and my inspiration. Let's keep lifting each other up and paving a bright path for the generations to come.
